

Are you considering renting out a Commercial or Industrial Unit in the City of Pomona?

Some important steps to take in order to process your commercial / industrial rental business license:

- A commercial / industrial rental business license application can be completed and a business license issued.
- Complete and sign the Statement of Understanding Form
- The cost of the license is based on the gross receipts from the rent received on an annual basis.
- This license is renewed annually.