

Are you a contractor conducting work in the City of Pomona but your business is not located in the city?

Some important steps to take in order to process your business license:

- If you are pulling permits with the Building Department, please disregard the following and see the Building Department.
- Complete and sign the Statement of Understanding Form
- The business license application can be completed and a business license issued.
- The cost of the business license is based on the valuation of work done in the City of Pomona. The license must be renewed bi-annually.
- A list of any subcontractors is required
