

Are you considering renting a Residential Home or Units in the City of Pomona?

Some important steps to take in order to process your business license:

- A residential rental business license application can be completed and a business license issued.
- Complete and sign the Statement of Understanding Form.
- The cost of the license is based on the number of units or homes being rented.
- This license is renewed annually.